Air Force Bombs Loaned By Navy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has had to borrow more than 400,000 bombs from the Navy to help carry out its air strikes in Viet Nam, it was learned today.

The Defense Department provided this figure in response to questions after the bomb diversion came to light in congressional testimony released Tuesday.

A Pentagon spokesman said that between Jan. 1, 1964 and April 30, 1966 "the Navy made available to the Air Force from Navy inventories slightly more than 400,000 bombs of various types and sizes."

The great bulk of this supply was turned over to the Air Force before this year, the spokesman said. No breakdown by year was given but presumably most of the bombs were diverted last year. Air strikes were first launched in North and South Viet Nam in February 1965.

The Navy uses 250- and 500-pound sizes. Depending on how many of each were provided, the Air Force received between 50,000 and 100,000 tons of ammunition.

Officials reported today U.S. forces are striking heavily at what may be the Viet Cong's greatest weakness — its stomach.

Since the year began, the offi-

Bank Merger Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Reserve Board announced Tuesday approval of the merger of the State Bank of Coleman, Mich., into the Citizens Bank and Trust Co., Clare, Mich.

The only office of the State Bank would become a branch of the merged institution.

Citizens Bank has total deposits of about $13 million compared with about $3 million for the State Bank.

In its decision, the board said: "The proposed consolidation would benefit the convenience of the residents of the Coleman area by affording them easy access to a more progressively operated banking office; at the same time there would be no significantly adverse consequences for banking competition."

Explosion Burns End Second Life

DETROIT (AP) — Burns from an explosion in a Detroit soap factory have claimed a second life.

Sanford Ross, 52, of Dearborn, a vice president of Wayne Soap Co., died Monday night in University of Michigan Medical Center.

The blast at the soap plant May 10 earlier killed Joseph Sajewicz Jr., of Southgate, an employee of the firm.

The explosion caused more than $250,000 damage to the plant, including about 100 persons including about 75 school children who were cut by glass that blew out windows in a school three blocks from the plant.

Cash Gets 'Hot'

DETROIT (AP) — Some $2,000 in refrigerated cash got "hot" Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilma Causey, 20, told Detroit Police a woman and a man armed with a revolver entered her home, forced her to lie on the floor and grabbed the money from the refrigerator.

She said her father, Walter Wingate, 50, had been saving the money in the bottom of the refrigerator.

New Artificial Heart Patient Is 'Doing Well'

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A retired Navy man was "awake and doing well" today after becoming the second patient with in three weeks to have a partial artificial heart implanted in his chest.

Walter L. McCans, 61, Woodville, Wash., received the device to assist his heart's pumping in an operation performed Tuesday by a cardiovascular team at Methodist Hospital.

A hospital statement said McCans was taken to surgery to have an aortic ball valve inserted in his heart. He was described as "rather severe left ventricle heart failure" when he entered the operating room.

Afterward the hospital would say only that "The surgical operation was successful."

Its first statement on McCans' condition was issued more than four hours after the operation was completed.

Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, internationally known heart surgeon, performed a historic similar operation last April 21 on Marcel L. DeRudder, 65, a former Illinois coal miner. DeRudder died April 26 without regaining consciousness.

Doctors said death was caused by a ruptured left lung, one of several complications following surgery.

Girl Rescued; Abductor Is Killed In Wild Gun Battle

Stop Being Nervous LBJ Advises Critics

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has challenged his Viet Nam critics to stop being "nervous Nellies" and stand united "until the gallant people of South Viet Nam have their own choice of their own government."

"I want the killing to stop," he told a Democratic fund-raising dinner Tuesday night in Chicago. But he added, in one of his sharpest attacks on his critics: "I do not think that those men who are out there fighting for us tonight think that we should enjoy the luxury of fighting each other back home."

Harry Gold, Atomic Spy, Freed Today

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Harry Gold, America's first known atomic spy who carried nuclear secrets to Soviet agents during and after World War II, goes free today after 16 years in prison.

He will finish the rest of his 30-year sentence on parole. The Philadelphia bachelor, 55 and white-haired, said he will live with a younger brother and their bedridden father, now 86, and hoped to work as a biochemist with a hospital or a university.

Gold's court-appointed attorney, Augustus B. Ballard of Philadelphia, said "He will have no trouble finding a job. He is a highly qualified biochemist. Quite a few feelers have been made and I'm sure he will be able to work out something with one of them."

Under parole, he cannot be a public charge. Gold pleaded guilty to the espionage charge, specifically that he was the chief courier who delivered A-bomb data to Soviet agents. His sentence was the stiffest possible under the law, short of death.

State Schools Seek More Aid

LANSING (AP) — University of Michigan officials told a House committee Tuesday the school needs $4 million more than the Senate provided, part of it to help raise teachers' salaries by an average 8 per cent.

Michigan State University told the House Ways and Means Committee last week it needs a $1.7 million boost or it would have to consider a tuition increase.

In response to a legislator's question, Allan Smith, U-M vice president for academic affairs, said U-M would have to review student tuition and fees if the Legislature does not meet minimum needs of about $62 million.

Thus far, he said, no tuition increase has been discussed. The school raised tuition last year to a base rate of $348 a year for Michigan residents and $1,000 for out-of-state students.

Earlier, Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a news conference that the Johnson administration is using all its influence to get the South Vietnamese to put aside "secondary issues and unite in the main tasks of fighting the war and building a new political system."

Rusk said the United States has warned the quarrelsome political leaders of South Viet Nam that civil strife there is endangering U.S. support for defense of their country against Communist conquest.

Johnson's theme, however, was political strife in the United States.

"There will be nervous Nellies and some who become frustrated and bothered and break ranks under the strain and turn on their own leaders, their own country and their own fighting men," he told the Democrats.

But he said he had no doubt the American people ultimately "will stand united until every boy is brought home safely, until the gallant people of South Viet Nam have their own choice of their own government."

The President conceded he is troubled and frustrated about the Vietnamese solution and said "We are seeking a way out. We are trying to find the solution."

DaNang Rebels Shoot Down US Spotter Plane

SAIGON (AP) — Rebels shot down a U.S. spotter plane over Da Nang late today. U.S. Marines quietly took over a Da Nang River bridge disputed between rebel and government troops in that hotbed of northern dissidence.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's opponents poured 500 more anti-government infantrymen into the city. And 200 men from a detachment of rangers already based there switched to the rebel side. That boosted the rebel ranks to more than 1,000 men, against the 2,500 Vietnamese marines and paratroopers Ky sent in Sunday.

Government forces, supported by two tanks, started to close in on one of Da Nang's three rebel-held pagodas. But they withdrew after Buddhist monks set fire to a wooden pyre they had erected there and threatened to burn themselves to death if the advance continued.

Ky had visited Da Nang briefly to rally support and swear in his new military commander for the five northern provinces making up the agitation-ridden 1st Corps area.

Of complaints from U.S. officials that he had not advised them in advance of the troop movement, Ky said in an interview that "the American government and the Vietnamese government are close, perhaps closer than ever before, but it does not mean we have to discuss everything."

U.S. Marines won control of the Da Nang River bridge by negotiations. Their commander, Gen. Lewis W. Walt, talked Vietnamese marines into letting the Americans take over the west end and others negotiated a withdrawal of rebel troops holding the east end.

The American spotter plane, carrying a U.S. Army pilot and a Marine Corps observer, drew rebel fire on two flights over Da Nang. It crash-landed on a beach two miles east of town after taking seven hits from anti-aircraft guns based near one of the three pagodas controlled by rebels. Neither American was injured.

Quiz Truckers

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department will interview truck drivers in Michigan during May and June to compile information on the flow of commodities and the economic trends in trucking. Drivers will be interviewed at 10 permanent weighmaster stations and five temporary stations. Information will be sent to the U.S. Commerce Department as part of a nationwide survey.

Peggy Bradnick Unharmed But Shaken, Rests

SHADE GAP, Pa. (AP) — A mad kidnaper-killer was shot to death today in a desperate attempt to break through a police cordon with his 17-year-old hostage, Peggy Ann Bradnick.

William Diller Hollenbaugh, 44, fell dying in a farmyard with a slug through his neck after a dash for freedom in the commandeered car of a deputy sheriff he had critically wounded.

The girl fled to the shelter of the farmhouse. She was not hurt.

Jack Conmy, press secretary to Gov. William W. Scranton, said the slug was fired from a shotgun by Larry Ruback, 15, son of the farm owner. Hollenbaugh, who Wednesday killed a pursuing FBI agent, fired two shots at oncoming state troopers before he collapsed, bleeding heavily.

The final gunfight climaxed a massive manhunt in the Tuscarora Mountains 70 miles southwest of Harrisburg.

Hollenbaugh — once an inmate of an asylum for the criminally insane — snatched Peggy Ann on her way home from school last Wednesday.

Shot Deputy

A force of 250 state troopers which had surrounded Hollenbaugh's mountain hideout throughout the night began closing in at dawn. Deputy Sheriff Francis Sharp found the kidnaper and the girl in a cabin.

Conmy said Hollenbaugh shot Deputy Sharp in the stomach and, pushing the girl into the back seat of the car, forced the deputy to drive toward Highway 322, a quarter of a mile away down a farm lane.

At the Ruback farm, Hollenbaugh ordered the bleeding deputy to get out and open the gate to the highway.

Conmy said young Ruback pointed a shotgun loaded with a slug out the window of his home and fired. As the slug spun Hollenbaugh around, the girl broke away and ran.

A state police car pulled up and Hollenbaugh fired two shots at the officers. They returned the fire and Hollenbaugh went down.

"Young Larry fired his shotgun as another state trooper fired at Hollenbaugh," Conmy said. "It is believed Hollenbaugh was struck simultaneously by rounds from the trooper's gun and the shot by Larry."

Conmy said he believed Hollenbaugh died as he fell to the ground. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Fulton Medical Center in nearby McConnellsburg.

Deputy Sharp was taken to a hospital in Chambersburg, where he underwent surgery. His condition was described as serious.

Girl Unharmed

Dr. G.T. Lorentz, who examined Peggy Ann at McConnellsburg medical center, said he found no evidence that she had been physically molested. She bore some scratches and her feet were blistered and sore from walking between hideouts during her week of captivity, he said.

Dr. Lorentz said the girl told him she and her kidnaper had been living on canned beans and corn. He described Peggy Ann as exhausted and said it might be several days before she could talk to newsmen.

Peggy's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bradnick, saw her at the medical center but did not speak with her because she was resting.

"Thank God she's back," said Mrs. Bradnick.

Asked his reaction to the death of his daughter's abductor, Bradnick replied: "What would yours be?"

Mrs. Bradnick said the family often had seen Hollenbaugh riding his bicycle around the Shade Gap area, but had never spoken to him and had no idea why he seized their daughter.

Hunt Climax

Hollenbaugh's death climaxed a massive manhunt which flared into tragedy Tuesday when the fugitive gunned down FBI agent Terry Ray Anderson, 42.

Anderson was shot down as cabin on a wooded hillside Tuesday with four other lawmen and which the Atlas has served as a booster.

Dispute Halts Construction On Pelletizing Plant

MARQUETTE (AP) — Some 700 construction workers today remained away from work on a $40 million project at the Bechtel Corp.'s Empire Mine near Palmer. Mining operations were not affected.

About 750 men walked off the job Monday, halting work on expansion of an iron ore pelletizing plant at the mine. An estimated 50 workers returned today.

Talks between Bechtel Corp. and United Ironworkers Local 783 continued. The union declined comment. Picket signs said the company "refuses to accept contractor responsibility in assignment of work."

Third Man Dead In Painter Union California Probe

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A third man connected with a painters' union half-million-dollar welfare fund was found shot to death Tuesday night in his office.

Lt. Bud Warner of the Sacramento County sheriff's office said Sture Youngren, 55, was shot in the head with a .45 caliber automatic pistol in an apparent suicide.

Youngren, an insurance man, was the administrator of the fund for the AFL-CIO Painters Union Local 478.

Two labor leaders who questioned the way the fund was handled were slain previously. Five men have been indicted by the San Francisco grand jury in one of those assassinations.

Assassinated were Dow Wilson, 40, leader of the union's San Francisco Local 4, and Lloyd Green, 45, financial secretary of the union's local in Hayward, near San Francisco.

Space Program Is At Stake In Failure Probe

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — While an investigation board probed the multimillion-dollar failure of Gemini 9's Atlas-Agena target rocket, launch crews pushed ahead today in hopes of launching astronauts Thomas P. Stafford and Eugene A. Cernan in two or three weeks.

When Stafford and Cernan can make another stab at their rendezvous and space walk mission will depend on the precise cause of Tuesday's failure.

The results could affect not only the Gemini 9 date, but also several other Atlas-boosted space launches scheduled here and at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California in the next two months.

Also at stake is the future of the U.S. man in space program. But officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said they were confident that a quick rescheduling of Gemini 9 — plus the launching of the three remaining Gemini flights at two-month intervals — would provide all the data necessary to proceed to the three-man Apollo moon project.

The Air Force, which is responsible for the Gemini launch vehicles, reported five hours after Tuesday's failure that one of the three engines in the Atlas booster had swiveled wildly to one side — which missilemen term a hardover — and sent the Atlas-Agena combination tumbling out of control.

The other two Atlas engines continued to burn, but the vehicle was diving back toward earth instead of into space. It plunged into the Atlantic Ocean about 180 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy, near Grand Bahama Island.

The failure was only the third in the last 52 launchings in which the Atlas has served as a booster.

LEO BERNARD, 28, of Detroit, right, was shot to death at the Socialist Workers Party Hall Monday. Police arrested for questioning Edward Waniok, 40, left. A man who walked into the hall, told the young men there "You're all Communists," and started firing. Bernard was killed and two were wounded. (AP Wirephoto)

Police Union Hearing Opens

The Michigan Labor Mediation Board today began a hearing in Escanaba for the purpose of determining the union that will represent the Escanaba Police force in collective bargaining with its employer, the City of Escanaba.

James R. McCormick, Labor Mediation Board trial examiner, is conducting the hearing that began at 1 p. m. in the Delta County Court House.

Present for the hearing and representing the City of Escanaba were City Manager George Harvey and City Attorney John G. Erickson.

According to the record in the case supplied to the City, the Teamsters Union is claiming that it represents the police officers, and that the officers have so certified their desire to become members of the Teamsters organization.

However, the Municipal Employees Union Local 78, also claims to continue to represent the police officers as it has in the past.

The determination of representation is proceeding under state statutes that include Act 379, which recognizes the right of public employees to organize for bargaining on wages, hours and working conditions.

Under this act public employees may form or join labor unions — but the Act does not give them the right to strike to achieve their goals.

U.P. Stirring, Escanaba Mayor Assures Hosts

MT. PLEASANT — "Things are stirring in the Upper Peninsula," Escanaba Mayor Harold J. Vanlerberghe informed 50 Mt. Pleasant civic leaders at a Michigan Week government day luncheon Monday.

The visiting mayor said industrial diversification, encouraged by competitive freight rates and availability of low-cost fuel (natural gas), has brought Escanaba and Delta County out of "depressed-area" status. Currently there is "for the first time in many years," an in-migration of skilled labor into Delta County, Vanlerberghe noted.

Monday's luncheon was just one of many activities on a brisk day-long schedule for the guest from Escanaba. He presided at Monday night's regular City Commission meeting after returning from a Lions Club meeting.

Visit Industry

The day began with a coffee hour and reception at City Manager W. L. Collins' office, attended by city, county, and Michigan Week officials. Also present was Rep. Russell Strange of Mt. Pleasant.

Then the visiting mayor toured City Hall, conversing with department heads about the problems faced by cities of similar size and the ways in which they try to solve them. The tour of City Hall benefited City Manager Collins, too. He found some keys he had lost a week ago.

After the luncheon, Mayor Vanlerberghe visited other municipal facilities, took part in a radio interview, and made a tour of Ferro Manufacturing Co., Mt. Pleasant's largest industrial employer. Ferro produces automotive hardware.

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. was host at a mid-afternoon reception for the visiting mayor. While the mayor attended the Lions Club meeting, his wife and three of their children were dinner guests of the city.

Receive Gifts

"I am very much impressed by the city," Vanlerberghe declared during a short speech at the civic luncheon. "Thank you for this wonderful reception. We sincerely and most deeply appreciate it."

Also participating in the Government Day exchange program was Clifford Turcotte of Stambaugh, chairman of the Iron County Board of Supervisors. Two supervisors from Isabella County were in Iron County for the day.

Lynn Leet, president of the Mt. Pleasant Chamber of Commerce, presented colorful Chippewa Indian baskets to Mrs. Vanlerberghe and Mrs. Turcotte. The baskets were handcrafted on the Indian reservation just outside Mt. Pleasant.

The Turcottes were given some of Shepherd's famous maple syrup by Paul Hamel, representing the Isabella County Board of Supervisors. Mt. Pleasant mayor pro tem Ray Planteroth gave Vanlerberghe a plaque proclaiming him "honorary mayor" of the city.

Dinner Planned For Williams

G. Mennen Williams

Former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams will be "welcomed back" to the state political arena in Escanaba Wednesday, May 25, with a dinner in his honor at the House of Ludington.

Williams is campaigning for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate. He is opposed by Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh.

He is expected to arrive in Escanaba at 2:30 p. m. next Wednesday and will tour several area industrial plants and stop at the Bishop Noa home, according to Claude Tobin Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobin are general chairmen for the dinner program.

Other members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. William Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dagenais and Mr. and Mrs. James DeLaire of Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Leo DeRoock of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pelletier of Rapid River; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice LaVigne of Nahma; Mr. and Mrs. James Dotsch of Garden, and Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of Soo Hill.

The dinner is open to the public and tickets are available at Gust Asps' or at the Piggly-Wiggly store or from any member of the Committee. Williams, 55, served six consecutive terms as Governor of Michigan before accepting a position as Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs in 1961. He resigned the post March 23 to begin his bid for the U. S. Senate seat.

At the time of the 1848 gold rush, San Francisco had a population of only 850.

Bark River H.S. Honors Students

BARK RIVER—Outstanding Bark River-Harris High School students and teachers were honored at the school's annual Awards Assembly Tuesday afternoon.

The top three scholars of the senior class who received pins were: Jim Hooker, Henry Gurosh, and Larry Pilon. Linda Shiverski was chosen as the junior class honor student. Jayne Olson received top scholarship honors in the sophomore class, and Rose Palarski was honored as the best student of the freshman class.

Larry Pilon and Henry Gurosh, both seniors, were presented with awards for merit in journalism given jointly by Michigan State University and the Michigan Press Association. Larry is editor of the Bark River-Harris school paper and Henry is assistant editor and news editor.

The annual typing award went to Nancy Nordin, and the commercial award to Edith Pirol.

Larry Pilon was awarded a certificate from Northern Michigan University for completing the requirements of their Pre-College Science Program in the summer of 1965. It was also announced that Larry's excellent work there gained him an invitation to attend again this year. Larry plans to accept the invitation.

It was announced that Linda Shiverski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shiverski, has been accepted as a participant in a two-week Summer Seminar in American History at the University of Michigan from July 10 to 22. Linda will also attend the annual Girls State Convention at the University of Michigan, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary of Post 438.

Ed Palka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Palka, Sr., has been chosen to attend Boys State this summer at Michigan State University. He will be sponsored by the Bark River American Legion Post 438.

It was announced that Kristine Bruce has been awarded a six-week Institute in Math and Science by Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

Bark River-Harris teachers who will attend summer institutes include Ray Gardapee, history at Northern Michigan University; Bernard Maynard, science at Michigan Technological University; and Lloyd Bruce, research at Northern Michigan University.

Michigan's Week

The first white man that we know about came to the Upper Peninsula 344 years ago. His name was Etienne Brule and he was an interpreter for Champlain, who did so much to make northern North America French.

His own people pronounced his name Bru-lay, but we have named an Upper Peninsula river — a tributary of the Menominee — for him and we call it the Brule. In this he is a bit like Columbus, of whom it has been said that although he discovered America (in the modern sense — the Norsemen were here before him) only one country was named for him and they misspelled his name in that one — Colombia.

Brule came from France in 1608 and was on Georgian Bay as early as 1610 or 1612. The first white man to see Lake Superior, he certainly started something. He was the first European in what's Michigan today and it was most of a half century before the explorers got around to looking over the Michigan that lies below the Straits of Mackinac. The Upper Peninsula was the dog then, and now it's the tail.

As we observe the 13th annual Michigan Week we look backward to M. Brule briefly, and we look about us at the greatness that the state has achieved in more than three centuries — it's been a state since 1837 — and especially we look ahead to what may be coming for the Wolverine State.

Our nickname is indicative of our condition. There aren't any wolverines in Michigan any more. In this former "Upper Canada" province of New France, but there are more than 8 million persons and one of the world's greatest industrial complexes.

Michigan's early history was strongly influenced by its position between Lakes Huron, Michigan and Superior. It is the heartland of our Inland Seas system. The lakes were of greatest importance initially as means of transportation, but now they are of greatest importance as sources of fresh water for a world in which it becomes an increasingly precious resource.

The lakes will be a strong influence upon Michigan's future. They are, for instance, one of the nation's greatest sports fishery potentials, but have been allowed to deteriorate into a fishes slum, with Lake Erie as the worst example of man's inhumanity to nature.

Michigan Week, sponsored by the Greater Michigan Foundation, is a useful reminder of Michigan's greatness and of the need for work to assure that its future will serve its people well.

This Michigan Week finds one of the Upper Peninsula's own being given deserved honors as a frontiersman. He is Byron W. Reeve, president of Lake Shore, Inc., of Iron Mountain and Marquette. He has been cited "for distinguished leadership in business and civic affairs building the Upper Peninsula of Michigan."

No. 13 is supposed to be unlucky, but the Upper Peninsula has never faced greater prospects of economic growth to report as it does this 13th Michigan Week. Mineral industry is booming — copper is in short supply and U. P. production is being expanded greatly — our pelletized iron has met the market challenge of higher grade foreign natural ores.

The Peninsula's commercial forests are coming back strongly after the period of waste that followed the first cutting and the promise of more wood-using industry is increasingly bright. General manufacture has been more firmly established with proof that some communities can support some phases of it. And the increased ability of the area to train workers enlarges the possibilities of industrial growth.

Agriculture has slipped but new approaches promise enlarged usage of the area's agricultural resources in the new economy's phases of agri-business and recreation. Our lack of schooling and especially high quality schooling and higher education have been faced more effectively and important gains have been made in this field. All-in-all our Michigan Week self-inspection is encouraging. We have made some progress with our problems and evolutionary forces in the economy promise good things ahead.

Threat In Future War

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A study circulating among high government officials warns that expected new nuclear discoveries could some day step up sharply the effectiveness of Red guerrilla wars in underdeveloped countries — such as Viet Nam, the Congo, Guatemala, Thailand or Burma.

These studies assume a nuclear weapon small enough to be carried in a suitcase will be practical (at some unspecified date).

They assume it would be unlikely that the guerrillas in any underdeveloped country would be able to make a suitcase nuclear bomb of their own.

But some time in the future it would not be difficult for Russia or Red China (or Egypt if it makes the bomb) to smuggle such weapons into any underdeveloped country where a strong guerrilla group was fighting.

The suitcase "nukes" could be held under the operational military control of the Red Chinese, Russian or Egyptian "advisers."

The small bombs could be placed in the target city and set off by the foreign "advisers" or by agents working under their supervision. The bombs would be set at night by stealth and likely no one would be able to prove who set them off.

They would usually be aimed at the capital city so as to destroy effective government so that the guerrilla forces could take over in the period of resulting confusion and disorganization.

The threat of nuclear retaliation was collective against cities.

"So One Guy Sez 'We Can Wipe You Out!' an' the Other Guy Sez 'We Can Wipe You Out!' an' POW!"

Logging Brought Michigan

Wildlife Situation Today

By LEE SMITH

Logging, beginning with the clearing of farmland in the southern counties of Michigan, has been a basic factor in producing fish and wildlife conditions that we have now. The reckless cutting, followed by continual fires, produced dramatic changes in the land and waters between the Saginaw Valley and Lake Superior.

Re-growth of forests, after fires were brought under control, resulted in the deer herd explosion, now a subject of bitter controversy as the herd declines because of the lack of year-around forage. Wildlife does not flourish in solid stands of timber. It is second-growth and marginal areas that are favorable for peak population of deer, grouse and snowshoe hares.

When forest cover was removed trout streams were subjected to heavy silting. At the same time stream cover, shade, supplies of food, hiding places for fish were improved in some areas by stumps, deadheads, thick second-growth. Probably log drives were a factor in destroying grayling in Michigan waters by gouging out the spawning beds.

In the early days of pine logging, spring drives brought the winter cut down to the sawmills in lake-harbor towns. At first the drives depended on the spring break-up, the big thaw, the freshets, until dams and artificial flooding kept driving crews busy all summer, with the big wheels hauling pine to the railroads over dry ground. Snow and ice were no longer indispensable to what was then listed in the big school geographies as Michigan's chief industry.

Woodmen, in general, were not interested in fishing or hunting. A timber — cruiser might carry hook, line and sinker and occasionally catch a trout supper for himself and compass-man after a day's work. Most of the lumber camp hired hunters. Some of them got regular wages, $18 to $35 a month. Others were paid as much as $5 for each deer they brought in.

Any old-time camp hunter would admit that he had to work hard to average a deer a day, regardless of sex, age or size. Venison was treated the same as camp beef—boiled in chunks—although on Christmas or some other big occasion a camp cook might go to the trouble of making mock turkey by removing the leg bone from a quarter of venison and filling the leg with stuffing.

A news release from A. K. Roberts, Ontario minister of lands and forests, tapped memories of old-timers who have long since joined the River Jordan drive. In the latest release is a description of a camboose camp, a reproduction of which is a tourist attraction in Ontario's Algonquin Park. I heard of a camboose a lifetime ago, as a skinny kid listening to the tales of Jimmy McGarry, a gaunt survivor of primitive pine logging.

Says the news release: "The camboose was the central fire-place where, beneath a large hole in the roof, a roaring fire burned day and night from November to April. Pots, pans, kitchen utensils and the occasional washed article of clothing hung around the wooden chimney. From one of the four posts that supported the chimney was attached the crane that held the big pots over the fire. Here is where the cook began his daily work at 3 a.m." The chimney was a large cone of lumber or split logs above the camboose fire in a sand box.

A camboose camp was roofed with cedar scoops. Old timers explained that on rising ground at the edge of a swamp you were likely to find hollow cedar trees. A hollow log was split lengthwise, and the logs were laid overlapping to form a durable and water-tight roof.

Old Timmy told me that in those days cross-cut saws had no rakers. He was historically correct. In that era a shanty boy went into camp in the fall with the tote team and stayed until the spring drive. If he came down with the drive he was socially acceptable. If he left the woods by dry-land, he was a high-banker, a creature on par with a hay-kicker, or farmer. Scandalous tales were told of farmers who, it was said, would work all winter and then take their pay home to their families. For a shanty boy there could be no behavior more despicable.

Michigan Mirror

By ELMER E. WHITE

Consideration of changing the name of the Mackinac Bridge to the G. Mennen Williams Bridge has been dropped for now but an interesting sidelight of the proposal can be found in history.

It is not known whether anyone asked the former governor's opinion on the question this year, but he expressed himself on the matter some years back.

Back in 1957, right around the time the bridge opened, a group of Upper Peninsula Williams enthusiasts proposed it be named after the governor who was the moving force in its construction.

They were ready to circulate petitions when they wrote to him regarding the use of his name. His answer was short and to the point: the bridge should be called the Mackinac Straits Bridge because of its location.

This year, the proposal for change was dropped in the legislature because proponents thought it would seem too political since Williams is running for the U.S. Senate nomination.

Opponents of the idea used the same reasoning that Williams himself used back when a Williams Bridge might have had considerable political value.

The former governor's reply to the bridge naming proposal is found in the Williams Papers collection housed at the University of Michigan.

An interesting note about the Williams Papers comes in conjunction with the current Democratic primary battle over the U.S. Senate nomination.

The Papers were donated to the University library for their value as historical record. They are in a closed reserve section. Use of the collection is limited to historical research.

Most of the Papers can be used for bona fide research purposes but some remain closed because of their controversial nature or because the people involved are still alive.

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Lectures on new diagnostic techniques, examinations and corrective technology are among program highlights at the annual convention of the Michigan State Chiropractic Association opening Tuesday in Grand Rapids. Some 800 are expected for the three-day session.

People, Events Of Yesteryears

From the files of the Escanaba Daily Press

10 Years Ago

"Last year Escanaba drew the mayor of a town in Lower Michigan so small that it hadn't been heard of here before and hasn't been heard of since. The mayor was a pleasant and intelligent gentleman who told about the bean elevator and the school back in his home town and then turned around and went home. This year it isn't going to be that simple or solemn for Escanaba. It has drawn the surprise package in the mayor exchange. The No. 1 prize in the exchange is Mayor Cobbo of Detroit, because of his position as front runner in the state's Republican gubernatorial race."

25 Years Ago

Stuart Peterson, Escanaba high school senior class president, outstanding athlete and school leader was named as one of 64 Michigan high school seniors receiving a scholarship to Michigan State College for 1941-42. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson, 317 S. 7th St., planned to enter the forestry school at Michigan State College.

Monica Collins of St. Joseph High School won the third prize in the state in the Essay Contest by the Department of Michigan Ladies, Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, on the subject "One Nation Indivisible." Her essay was entered in the national competition.

Ann Landers

Parents Do Not Owe Child An Inheritance

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are expecting our first child in about eight weeks. We've been married seven years and had almost given up hope, so of course this child means a great deal to us.

I can truthfully say I don't care if it's a boy or a girl, and at first my husband didn't care either. But these past couple of months he has been making some very unsettling remarks to friends, relatives — anyone who will listen. Last night he told my mother, "If it isn't a boy, it's for sale."

I laughed it off when he first began to say such things, but it's no longer funny. I'm beginning to think he actually has his heart set on a boy and if it's a girl he will be terribly disappointed.

We live in a small town and everyone has heard about my husband's remarks. I've had a difficult pregnancy and this isn't making it any easier. Please give me some help. — WEARY

Dear Weary: The King of Sweden has a throne problem. What's your knucklehead's excuse?

Expectant fathers who voice a preference for either a boy or a girl baby cause their wives embarrassment and anxiety. Moreover they look like fools because, invariably, the ones who scream the loudest for boys end up so goofy about their daughters that they are positively obnoxious. Show this column to your husband and let's hope it will persuade him to keep his mouth shut.

Dear Ann Landers: Eight years ago our daughter Melanie married a young man who was notably lacking in ambition. Her father and I tried to make her understand that if she married the young man she might have to do without many of the things she took for granted.

The day before Melanie eloped she screamed at us, "I don't care if we never have a dime. All I want is Him!" So now she has "him" (who prefers to work a night shift so he can play golf during the day) plus five children and plenty of unpaid bills.

Last night Melanie said it would be very nice if her father and I gave them $5,000 so they could get out of debt and take a trip. "We've never been anywhere since our honeymoon," she complained, which, of course, is true.

When her father failed to show much enthusiasm for Me-lanie's suggestion, both she and her husband became hostile. They called us "tightwads, selfish and abnormal." They claim that parents who can afford to help their children out with money gifts have a moral obligation to do so. "Why wait until you die?" Melanie shouted. "If you give us money now we won't have to pay inheritance taxes!"

Will you comment, please? — THE RS

Dear RS: Parents have moral obligations to raise their children to be independent and self-reliant. They do not owe their children gifts and continued financial support after marriage. And they don't owe them an inheritance either.

Giving can be a joy, but your children are trying to chisel money from you and that takes it out of the gift class.

Your daughter is employing emotional blackmail. Don't let her ugly remarks push you into giving her or her golf-playing husband one dime more than you want to give them.

"The Bride's Guide," Ann Landers' booklet, gives authoritative and complete information on how to plan a wedding. To receive your copy of this comprehensive guide, write to Ann Landers, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35c in coin.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

BARBS

By WALTER C. PARKES

All men start life as babies and wives know some of them remain so into middle age.

The advertising of many autos stresses engine power and speed. Part of the new safety drive, no doubt.

A daily double is good or bad, depending on whether you grab it at the race track or the bar.

The really considerate neighbor will return the snow blower he borrowed last winter before he borrows your lawn mower.

VFW District Meet Opens On Saturday

Three hundred delegates and guests are expected for the 14th district spring convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars Saturday and Sunday.

Following registration beginning at 2 p.m., Saturday, a memorial service will be conducted at 4:30 p.m., by district officials at the site of the gun on the courthouse lawn. A dance will be held at the clubhouse at 9 p.m.

Sunday, registrations will continue and various committee meetings and schools of instruction will be held for men.

Women will meet in the old gym at the high school, where Auxiliary business meetings are scheduled.

Clarence Schumacher, department commander heads the list of state officials coming. Gladys Turner, past department official will represent the department.

Two local men will be seeking office. Gilbert Berwin seeking his third term as district chaplain and Paul Dragos, to be elevated to senior vice-commander post.

Dragos is general chairman of the event and has invited all post and auxiliary members to attend. Veterans legislation and benefits will be discussed by district and department service officers.

VFW Auxiliary Has Memorial Rite

The VFW Auxiliary initiated three at ceremonies Monday evening. Memorial services were conducted for deceased members.

Announcement was made of the 14th district VFW convention in Manistique May 21-22 and the department convention June 23-26 in Grand Rapids. Delegates will be Mmes. Peter Kasbohm, Ralph Deloria, Ivor Willcock and Ed Jorgenson. Alternates were Mmes. Earl Malloch, Jack Gould, Elmer Hamel and Stella Plante.

The Auxiliary will visit Newberry State Hospital May 26.

Lunch was served after the meeting.

Cancel July 4th Celebration Plan

At a meeting of the American Legion Fourth of July committee Monday night, it was decided to cancel plans for a July Fourth celebration.

Rotary Program Is On Tourism

Ken Dorman, executive secretary of the U. P. Tourist Association and Cliff Liberty presented a program for Rotary Monday. Hospitality, competition from other states and countries and travel shows were discussed. Slides were shown of the shows.

Scout Honor To Ted Hentschell

Wood badge beads, a Scouting honor were presented to Ted Hentschell at a banquet of the Hiawathaland district council in Marquette. Charles Forman of Marquette and Ed McNamara of St. Ignace made the presentation. Hentschell attended a one-week wood badge training session for adult Scouters last year and completed theoretical work in the past winter.

Briefly Told

The Class of 1946 will hold a reunion planning meeting in the State Bank conference room Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Funeral services were held in Oconto Monday for John Dehut, brother of William Dehut of Manistique. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Dehut and Gladys Mueller and Mrs. Basil Dehut. Charles Rousseau has returned to Milwaukee after a visit with the William Dehuts here.

State Police ticketed William T. Compeau, Hillman, Peter C. Houle, Flint and Earl A. LeGault, Engadine, speeding. Public Safety officers ticketed Bruce A. McCall, Rte. 1, excessive speed from start.

Fine of $50 and costs were assessed in Justice Court to Clifford A. Lambert Jr., 22 of 124 S. 3rd St., on a Public Safety department charge of driving under influence of liquor. His license was suspended.

A story hour will be held Saturday at 10:30 a.m., in the Manistique School and Public Library.

18-Mill Proposal Going On Ballot

A motion was made by the Schoolcraft Board of Supervisors Monday afternoon to place on the Aug. 2 ballot a proposal to raise the tax rate limitation in the county from 15 to 18 mills.

The board was petitioned to place the proposition on the ballot by the Allocation board.

The Allocation board formula for distribution was changed, to provide a tenth instead of two-tenths mill to the intermediate school district. The county and school share was set at 8.45 mills and townships, one mill.

The board voted 10-2 to put the proposal before voters. Casting no votes were Agner Dehlin and Lindsley Frenette. Mayor Thor Reque of Manistique was absent as he was in Rogers City for Michigan Week mayor exchange.

The amendment of distribution proposal was unanimously approved. The additional levy would provide approximately $75,000, and would be voted for a period of five years.

A motion of intent to zone was adopted after a discussion by Dr. Louis Wolfanger of Michigan State University. The next step will be creation of a commission to draft a plan.

An effort was made, but failed, to rescind a resolution adopted at the last meeting to appoint rather than elect members of the county road commission. The vote was a 6-6 tie with nays, to rescind the action, cast by Wells Bowers, Lial Lake, Francis Morrison, Harold Peters, Floyd Sample and Joel Carley.

Veteran burial allowances were approved for two.

Pearl Smith was re-appointed to a 5-year term on the county library board, beginning Jan. 1.

Military leave was approved for William Doyle and Martin Hoholik to attend National Guard camp.

The building and grounds committee was asked to check on correction of the electrical entrance to the courthouse and repairs to the dome and roof.

Bids will be opened on the medical care facility construction at 2 p.m., June 16.

Kresge Stock Is Split, 2 For 1

DETROIT (AP)—S. S. Kresge Co. directors upped the quarterly dividend by five cents and split the firm's stock two-for-one at the company's annual meeting Tuesday.

Kresge common stock was doubled from 10 million to 20 million shares.

Directors then split each $10 par share into two shares of $5 par stock, raising the number of shares outstanding from 5,614,195 to 11,228,390.

Effective date of the split will be the close of business May 27.

Directors declared a quarterly dividend of 40 cents on each share of $10 par value common stock, payable June 10 to stockholders of record May 27. Kresge's previous quarterly dividend was 35 cents a share.

School Challenge

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Some 200 students at Northwestern Michigan College have challenged other schools to equal their volunteer roadside cleanup record. The Traverse City group reports collecting 14,810 bottles and cans in one hour from along state roads within 10-mile radius of their campus. A bonus of $8.01 from returnable bottle deposits went into the NMC student scholarship fund.

Pre-School Health Needs Explained

A clinic is scheduled May 24 in Augustana hall to provide immunizations for pre-schoolers. Parents have been asked to bring their children to their physicians.

If they are unable to contact them, the health department may be called for an appointment at the clinic.

Michigan law requires that children entering school for the first time shall have a signed statement from their physician or health department that they are adequately immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, lockjaw (tetanus) whooping cough and poliomyelitis or a signed statement from parent or guardian that because of religious or other convictions, he does not want the child protected.

If a child has not had immunization for three years, boosters are needed before starting school. If there has been no immunization, the shots must be started and completed within four months. This should be done before school starts.

Children's previous records of immunization should be brought to the physician or the health department.

A tuberculin test is also required and will be done by the health department during the first few weeks after school starts.

Slaughter Aim In Milk War

The Marinette County National Farmers Organization meeting May 13 at Crivitz Town Hall elected as officers Clarence Bjorkman, president; Milford Kriedeman, vice-president; Norman Johns, treasurer; and C. J. Canavera, secretary. Frank Frye was elected a trustee for three years.

The NFO unit decided that in the near future it would join with other Wisconsin County NFOs in planning to sell dairy cows for slaughter to protest agricultural policies of the Johnson Administration. A statement adopted by the meeting urged all farm organizations in adjoining counties to join in the effort.

An NFO spokesman said that the life expectancy of the slaughtered dairy cattle would be from four to five years. Dairymen said that sale of dairy cattle for slaughter could not only remove milk, cheese and butter from the market to force up prices into a profit range for the farmer, but would also remove a future source of veal and beef.

Dairymen at the Crivitz meeting expressed indignation at the Johnson Administration action in increasing imports of cheddar cheese and the 50 per cent cutback on pork for the armed forces.

Revelli To Lead Area Bands Here

Dr. William D. Revelli, distinguished conductor of bands at the University of Michigan, will join the award-winning Escanaba Area High School bands for their annual Spring Concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at William W. Oliver auditorium.

Dr. Revelli's appearance will be at his own request, said John Chown, area high school band director.

Featured on the program will be the 110-piece seventh grade band and the 115-piece eighth grade band under the direction of David Laakso and the 100-piece High School Symphonic Band directed by Chown.

Revelli will conduct selected numbers with each band, including several of the numbers which the bands performed in winning first division ratings at Upper Peninsula music festivals.

Director Since 1935

Dr. Revelli, a taskmaster on the football field with his prize University marching band and an artist on the directing of the University Concert Band, has been director of bands at Michigan since 1935.

For more than 40 years, Dr. Revelli has played a foremost role in the band movement in America, first as a conductor of the Hobart, Ind., high school band and later at the University of Michigan. In 1961, Dr. Revelli and the University Symphony Band traveled to the Soviet Union, Egypt, Greece, Turkey, Jordan, Cyprus, Lebanon, Romania and Poland on a concert tour under the sponsorship of the United States Department of State. The band was widely acclaimed by critics at every stop on the six-week, 30,000-mile tour.

Honors Abound

Revelli also has been awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Music by the Chicago Musical Society, the honorary Doctor of Laws degree by Oklahoma City University, and the honorary Doctor of Public Service degree by Western State College, Gunnison, Colo. In 1961, the University of Michigan recognized him with the Faculty award for distinguished achievement.

Oldest Graduate Of West Point Celebrates 100

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — "The only thing I am being honored for, I had nothing to do with," said the oldest living graduate of the U.S. Military Academy today as he marked his 100th birthday.

For Brig. Gen. William Jefferson Glasgow it will be a relatively quiet day spent inside his historic 91-year-old adobe home near downtown El Paso looking at birthday greetings, including one from President Johnson.

"My main occupation is sleeping," the general said with a laugh. "I nap in the morning and nap in the afternoon and sleep all night."

Although not bedridden, Glasgow is physically weak. "I haven't been out to the front gate in oh, two or three years, I guess," he said.

Glasgow graduated from West Point in 1891, 30th in his class of 65. Two other class members survive, Col. Lewis S. Sorley and Gen. John L. Hines, both of Washington, D.C. They are a few months younger than Glasgow.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., he first came to the Southwest as a second lieutenant of cavalry soon after his graduation from West Point.

He was promoted to brigadier general in 1927, the year he retired from service. Glasgow and his wife Josephine, now 92, then moved to El Paso.

He credited his long life partially to a strain of French blood in his family's heritage. "I had an uncle who lived to be 104, and another uncle was 102," he said.

Govt. Controls Blamed

Gas Shortage Predicted

ANN ARBOR — The United States faces a critical shortage of natural gas within 10 years at present rates of consumption and production, a University of Michigan business economist predicts.

Associate Prof. Ross J. Wilhelm of the U-M Graduate School of Business Administration says that unnecessary federal regulation of the natural gas industry is a major factor in the potential shortage of the fuel widely used in heating, cooking, and air conditioning.

At the present rate we will be consuming more natural gas within two years than we are adding to our reserves through discovery, he points out.

"The shocking and frightening factor in this dismal picture as to the outlook for our supply of natural gas is that total exploration for natural gas is down to its lowest level since World War II, and discoveries of new natural gas fields have fallen off sharply since 1955."

In 1956, discovery and bringing in of new reservoirs added about 25 trillion cubic feet of natural gas, Wilhelm explains. From 1956 to 1959 the average dropped to about 21 trillion cubic feet. In recent years the average has fallen to about 17 trillion cubic feet. Meanwhile consumption is rising rapidly.

"In about 10 years the tub will begin to go dry," he predicts. "This means, of course, that over time those household users of natural gas for cooking, heating, air conditioning and so on are going to be faced with higher gas prices as the gas companies have to rely more and more on manufactured gas — as well as the ultimate prospect of costly changeovers to other types of fuels for major expenses such as heating.

"The basic reason we are in this critical situation is that since 1954 the federal government has been regulating the prices at which natural gas may be sold by gas field owners, and has kept prices at arbitrary and unrealistically low levels. The result of price control by the Federal Power Commission has been largely to eliminate the incentive for producers to undertake costly exploration efforts needed to discover new fields.

"This is a true case of the penny-wise, pound-foolish policies followed by popularity-seeking politicians when they are given control over prices. They follow the short-run popular course of holding prices at ridiculously low levels without regard for long-run consequences. They usually pass over the long-run considerations with the quip that 'we will all be dead in the long run so it doesn't matter.'"

"Well, 10 years from now the consumers of natural gas will be paying the price for the bungling we are experiencing today in the form of high gas prices and serious gas shortages."

Wilhelm holds that from an economic viewpoint there is no justification for government regulation of natural gas production or prices, since the industry is, he says, highly competitive (over 8,000 producers in the U.S.) and will be effectively regulated by competitive market forces. Anyone can enter the natural gas industry by discovering a gas field or by importing frozen natural gas from foreign ports," he adds.

"In addition, the entire natural gas industry also faces strong interindustry competition from electricity generated from coal, water sources, atomic energy or petroleum as well as direct competition in the home-heating field from coal and oil," the economist adds.

Auto Cutbacks Felt By Steel

NEW YORK (AP) — Automobile production cutbacks are being felt by the steel industry, Iron Age said today.

The publication reported that steel inventories built up almost a year ago as a hedge against a strike are having a delayed-action effect on the steel market.

Initial cutbacks in steel orders stemmed from general Motors Corp.'s cut in production. But, Iron Age said, Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. are certain to follow as auto sales slip in comparison with last year's record rate, and below estimates for this year.

Iron Age said that after a labor settlement was reached, steel inventory liquidation was less than expected. Now with the automakers faced with a mild dropoff in sales and a shortening of the 1966 model runs, steel stocks loom impressively high as much of the steel ordered for this year's lines is not applicable to next year's.

Three Candidates File For Election To School Board

Flat Rock school district voters will choose one of three persons for a four-year term on the Board of Education at the annual school election Monday, June 13.

They are Harold Chenier, Mrs. Ellen Jensen and Edward Solis.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

If the University of Michigan has the "publish or die" requirement that most of American higher education is reputed to insist upon with its faculty, Mike Church ought to be around Ann Arbor for a few weeks yet.

Mike is the director of cultural activities for the U-M Extension Service.

He is the subject of articles in both the current Rotarian magazine and in Reader's Digest. It is the same article and the double exposure results from the Reader's Digest's success. It is so in need of material for its fat monthly that it plants its own stories with other publications so that it can republish them as a sort of ersatz cross section of American journalism instead of just the outpouring of its own writers' stable.

The article "Mike Church—Evangelist of Art" is by Gil Goodwin and Allen Rankin. It is not vintage Church, because this complex, extroverted, inventive, innovative man defies capture in a quickie article of this kind, but it will introduce thousands to him and that's good.

Thousands of Michigan people know him from his lectures on art appreciation, his judging of clothe-lines art shows, the letter he issues to the arts of Michigan through the U-M Extension Service and his constant travel to hollow logs in which people are doing wood carving or garages in which the trucks have given way to the easel set.

It's doubtful if anyone else in Michigan knows as many of the state's artists and Sunday painters as Mike Church does. There may be a feeling that it would be better if the U-M Medical School would invent a pill that would cure people of the itch to paint, but the U-M Extension Service thinks that it is worth encouraging. And Mike is its agent provocateur.

He has a slide collection of graphic Americana which may be only one more wonder at the great University of Michigan, but which is a fascinating record of Michigan's efforts to express itself in oils, clay and barn paint.

"Nearly everybody," the article quotes Church as telling state culture groups, "has an urge to create some sort of art, or at least to learn how to appreciate the art works of others. Give that urge of yours a chance. Unglue yourself from your television set. You may be amazed at how much art can do for you!"

"For the last 20 of his 58 years, Michael Paul Church has stumped across Michigan with exhortations like that . . . Armed with plain talk and boundless infectious enthusiasm, he travels 50,000 miles a year, makes some 300 personal appearances."

St. Peter is sure to say to him: "You have made Da-Vinci rather unhappy. Come and explain things to him."

Playhouse Folds Seek Crown

PETOSKEY (AP)—The Petoskey Playhouse, a nine-year-old, 450-seat theater, will not open this year and is for sale, owners Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lenoff said.

The playhouse, on the shores of Crooked Lake, advertised itself as the only building in Michigan built and designed for summer theater.

If you are eligible for Medicare:

NOW-through May 31-you can get the added protection of BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD 65®

MEDICARE will not pay for all of your health expenses. In fact federal experts estimate only 40% to 60% of the individual's total health care expenses will be covered by Medicare. Blue Cross-Blue Shield 65® is specially designed to cover services not fully covered by Medicare. This could save you hundreds of dollars.'

For example: Under Medicare you would have to pay the first $40 of hospital expense for each "spell of illness." Blue Cross-Blue Shield 65® will pay this $40 for you. Medicare provides for up to 90 days of hospital care but you must pay $10 per day after the 60th day. This could cost you another $300. Blue Cross-Blue Shield 65® will pay the extra $10 per day for you, up to the full $300. In addition, it will add an extra 30 days of paid in full hospital care to your Medicare coverage. In all, a full 120 days.

Part B of Medicare will pay 80% of reasonable charges for physicians services in hospital, home or office, after you have paid the first $50 each year. You must pay the remaining 20%. Blue Cross-Blue Shield 65® will pay the first $50 of charges and the remaining 20% for all such services performed while you are a bed patient in a hospital, nursing home or extended care facility. Services performed in your home or the doctor's office are not included.

These are a few examples of how Blue Cross-Blue Shield 65® and Medicare work together to provide you with the best health care protection ever available.

If you are now 65 or older and want

BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD 65®

you must enroll by May 31

FOR THOSE NOW 65 OR OLDER, THIS OFFER CANNOT BE EXTENDED BEYOND MAY 31. Those who reach age 65 after May 31 may enroll as they become eligible to enroll in Medicare. So act now. This valuable protection is yours for only $5.36 per month per person. Simply fill in the application and send it to the address shown. You will be sent your certificates with complete details of the coverage, together with your identification card.

Send no money. After you have had a chance to examine the protection offered, simply pay the billing sent you with your certificates.

If other members of your family are under 65, they may enroll in regular Blue Cross and Blue Shield Non-Group. An application may be obtained at any doctor's office, hospital or simply call or write Blue Cross and Blue Shield at the address shown.

Playhouse Folds Seek Crown

PETOSKEY (AP)—The Petoskey Playhouse, a nine-year-old, 450-seat theater, will not open this year and is for sale, owners Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lenoff said.

The playhouse, on the shores of Crooked Lake, advertised itself as the only building in Michigan built and designed for summer theater.

Why so many things besides medicine?

One customer laughingly tells us we stock more items than an old-fashioned general store. That's because our customers, thank goodness, are pretty healthy and don't need enough prescriptions to keep us busy. Prescriptions are really the heart of our business. Because of them, we're open for the greater part of the day. Despite the fact that many pharmacists sell everything from books to bobby pins, we're still professional men... always ready when medication is needed.

Newcomers Hold Final Meeting Of Season

The Escanaba Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club held their final meeting of the season Tuesday evening at the St. Stephen's Guild Hall.

Final plans were discussed for the Spring dance to be held June 4 at the Highland Golf Club.

A film, "New Horizons North" was shown by a representative of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

New members introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Richard Gels from Wisconsin, Mrs. Jack Bradshaw, California; Mrs. James Verbridge, Kalamazoo; Mrs. Gary Cox of Green Bay and Mrs. Homer Chappell of Aurora, Minn.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles East, Mrs. John Sankovich, Mrs. Don Allment, Mrs. Pat Moran and Mrs. Raymond Ross.

Bridge instructions were given by Mrs. John Sankovich and the handicraft group worked on decorations for the Spring dance.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Froehlin, Mrs. Donald Moore, and Mrs. John Erickson. Mrs. Phillip Weir was awarded the guest prize.

To PTA Post

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Milton R. Litterst of Peoria, Ill., was elected Tuesday night as Region IV vice president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. He represents an area including Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and Kentucky.

Heads Church

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Robert Weitmann of Livonia, Mich., Tuesday was elected president of the Michigan District of the American Lutheran Church. The district includes seven counties in Ohio and Michigan. Dr. Weitmann has been assistant to the president for several years.

JEAN ST. MARTIN, MTU-Soo co-ed from Escanaba, reigned as Queen of the Tech ROTC Military Ball Saturday evening, May 9 at the National Guard Armory. Dr. Kenneth J. Shoultz, Sault branch director, crowned the queen and made the presentation of a bouquet of red roses during the dance intermission. Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank St. Martin, 320 S. 11th St. and is a freshman at Michigan Tech majoring in medical technology. Miss St. Martin is a 1965 graduate of Holy Name High School.

Presbyterian Ladies Will Meet Tuesday

The Women's Association of the First United Presbyterian Church will celebrate Centennial year at their regular monthly luncheon meeting to be held at the church on Tuesday, May 24 at 1:15 p. m. Women of the community are cordially invited to attend.

The program entitled, "Reminiscing," is in charge of Mrs.

J. LaCrosse and guest of honor will be Mrs. Carrie Dahlberg who was Escanaba's Centennial queen in 1963.

Hostesses for the luncheon are members of Circle IV. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Lawrence Erickson, 786-3669 or the church office, 786-2932.

Grapefruit seeds if planted thickly in rich earth about an inch thick and kept well watered, will sprout into a beautiful green centerpiece in about two weeks.

Garden Peninsula

Fifteen Kindergarten pupils of the Garden School were presented diplomas by Superintendent Larry Lundell at graduation exercises held Sunday night at the Community Building. The boys and girls of the First Grade entertained the graduates and their relatives and friends in a program of song and dance.

Added features were songs by Supt. Lundell who sang, "Over the Rainbow," and Cindy Swarr, "Alice Blue Gown", accompanied by Glenda Thill.

Members of the graduation class were Allen Beaudre, Andrew Boudreau, Gloria Grenier, Laura Guertin, Cynthia Harbanski, Kirk Froggatt, Della James, Danny Lester, Michael Lester, John Lucas, Gregory Pelletier, Joseph Plante, Lydia Tatro, Candance Wilson and Brenda Duchene.

Mrs. Eva Boudreau, kindergarten and 1st grade teacher, was in charge of the program assisted by Mrs. Charles Rasmussen, Mrs. Francis Stoken, and Mrs. Jack Halvorson. Miss Glenda Thill provided the music for the evening.

Grange Meeting

Rufus Spaulding, Grand Master of the Kates Bay Grange, conducted the May 10 meeting of the organization. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Fulcher were sworn in as new members. Mrs. John LaTulip, representing the local Farm Bureau, addressed the group on Bay Cliff Health Camp. A money making project for the benefit of the camp was discussed and a card party planned. The party will be sponsored by both the Grange and Farm Bureau and the date will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Douglas and family of Grayling spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Avery. The Sunday night mixed bowling league of Manistique held their annual awards banquet Saturday night at Bay de Noc Cafe.

Talent Show At HN Parent's Club Tonight

This evening's meeting of Holy Name High School Parents' Club at 8 o'clock in the school multi-purpose room will close the season with the annual Student Talent Show.

Using the theme, "It Was A Very Good Year," Sister Christa Marie's troupe will present a wide variety of talent. Singing and groups of students will sing, dance, play instruments, and perform skits. In addition to music from Debussy to barbershop, folksong and interpretation, Patty Peck will perform her copyrighted original composition on the guitar.

Election of next year's officers will be the most important item of the brief business meeting. Articles can still be brought to school for the rummage sale to be held on Friday and Saturday in the Exhibition Building at the fairgrounds.

Ladies of All Saints parish will serve refreshments, with Mrs. Eugene Verhulme, chairman, and Mesdames Fred Terrian, Francis Roy, Robert Buckland, Rene Maskart, Francis Cannon, Rudolph Tottier and Joseph Bal, assisting.

Merritt Kasson Honored At Dinner Dance

Over 100 Upper Peninsula pharmacists, medical representatives and their wives attended a dinner dance Saturday evening at the Escanaba Elk's Club in honor of Merritt Kasson who will be retiring soon.

Mr. Kasson graduated from the University of Wisconsin School of Pharmacy in 1924 and was employed as a registered pharmacist in Rhineland, Wis., until he came to Escanaba in 1937 as a medical representative of the Upjohn Co.

The Kassons were presented with a tape recording of the evening's activities and a large engraved silver tray, commemorating the occasion.

Out of town guests attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newcomb, Green Bay, Jerry Baas of Racine and the Kasson's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Zuehlke of Waukesha.

Some good cooks like to use raw peanuts when they make nut brittle.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made by Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Smith of Perkins of the engagement of their daughter, Karen Sue, to Robert DeCramer, BT2, U.S. Navy. The bride-elect is a Senior at Perkins High School and will graduate this evening, May 18. Her fiancé is a graduate of Perkins High School and is presently serving aboard the U.S.S. Shangri-la in Macport, Fla.

Sherry Arvey Bride Of William Slagstad

Calvary Baptist Church in Escanaba, its altars adorned with vases of gladioli and snapdragons, was the setting Saturday, May 14 for the wedding of Sherry Sue Arvey and William Verne Slagstad.

Officializing at the double ring ceremony performed at 7:30 in the evening was the Rev. Nels Nelson of the First Baptist Church of Iron River, a cousin of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Arvey of 1220 5th Ave. S., Escanaba and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Slagstad of Cornell, Rte. 1.

Rayon Organza

The bride wore a floor length cotton silhouette gown of crisp imported rayon organza over taffeta with a chapel train. The gown was fashioned with a three dimensional Venice lace drape bodice, elbow length sleeves and scoop neckline.

Her headpiece of lace petals with pearl and crystal trim was attached to a triple tiered bouffant veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink sweet-heart roses with feathered carnations in a cascading arrangement.

Serving as maid of honor was Harriet Slagstad of Rte. 1 Cornell, sister of the bridegroom. Bestman was Jon Arvey, brother of the bride, Escanaba and seating the guests were Sanford Slagstad, brother of the bridegroom and Daniel Harrison, both of Cornell.

Mrs. William Slagstad (Preston's)

Farewell Party Is Planned For Rev. W. Monske

A farewell party will be given for the Rev. Wayne A. R. Monske, Pastor of Salem Lutheran Church-Bark River, on Sunday, May 22, beginning at 8 p. m. at the church. Members and friends of Salem Church are cordially invited to attend. The choir members will be in charge of the program.

Hostesses will be the Mesdames Chester Good, Edwin Hall, Walter Martin and Arthur Sundquist. John Krause will be master of ceremonies.

Pastor Monske will leave Salem Church after the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Pentecost, May 29. On Tuesday, May 31, he will begin a year of clinical education sponsored by the Lutheran Social Services of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. The program includes clinical training in counseling, group work, and individual case work at four different institutions in Wisconsin: Milwaukee Lutheran Hospital; the Wisconsin State School for Boys, Wales; the Wisconsin State Hospital, Winnebago; and the Wisconsin State Correctional Institution, Fox Lake. Three other Lutheran pastors have also been accepted for the year of study and work.

During the summer of 1967 Pastor Monske will complete the requirements for the degree of Master of Sacred Theology in pastoral counseling at Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa.

Area Churches Will Honor Graduates

TRENARY—The churches in the Trenary area will honor the graduating seniors Sunday, May 22 as follows: St. Rita's Church will have a Mass and Holy Communion at the 11 a. m. service honoring the twelve seniors from Trenary, Rock, and Eben-Chatham areas.

First Lutheran of Trenary worship service at 8:30 a. m. combining Holy Communion for the congregation, Confirmation, and a special sermon for the seniors. Candidates for confirmation are Arlene Corne, Karen Hendrickson, Mike Iho, Diane Rukkila, and Marcia Waananen.

A special commencement service will be held for the seven graduates from the Methodist Church at 9 a. m. There will be music by the senior choir and the members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship are asked to sit as a group for the service.

Seniors from all three churches are asked to wear caps and gowns for the Sunday services.

Mrs. Rene Labre Trenary Guest Speaker At Altrusa Club

May Crowning

The annual May Crowning will be held at St. Rita's church Saturday, May 21 at 2 p. m. The queen is Miss Ann Finlan and the king, Tom Woodaz. All children of the catechism classes will take part in the ceremony. A silver tea honoring the Sister's of Our Lady of Victory, Garden, will take place following the crowning.

At a brief business session members voted to present a scholarship for 1966-1967 to a Delta County girl to attend Bay de Noc Community College. A contribution was also made to Bay Cliff Health Camp at Big Bay.

Mrs. Delia Peterson, club president, introduced the program speaker, Mrs. Rene Labre, who told of her work with oral deaf children and the work of the Better Speech and Hearing Society. She reminded members of the election on June 13, at which time voters in Delta and Schoolcraft Counties will be asked by the Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate School district to levy up to one mill for special education purposes in the area.

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Mary Jane Hoffer, District 7 Governor, and Mrs. Violet Puetz, District 7 Secretary, of Appleton. Mrs. Hoffer reported on the Tenth Annual Conference of District 7 of Altrusa International held in Winnipeg, Canada on May 6-8.

Blood Call Urgent:

Needed On War And Home Front

An appeal for blood donors to help meet the need for life-saving blood in Delta County and in Viet Nam was voiced today by the local Red Cross, sponsors of the blood bank program.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Gladstone on Tuesday, May 24, and will be in Escanaba for two days—May 25 and 26.

The Department of Defense has asked the American Red Cross to collect 250,000 units of blood by June 30, 1967, for

TIME AND PLACE

The Bloodmobile will be at the James T. Jones School, Gladstone, Tuesday, May 24, 3 to 7 p. m.

In Escanaba the Bloodmobile center will be at the Teamsters Hall, Wednesday, May 25, 2:30 to 7:30 p. m.; and Thursday, May 26, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

blood components for defense use in the Viet Nam conflict.

These units of blood will be used to process two derivatives: Gamma globulin to fight hepatitis, and serum albumin for the treatment of shock. Whole blood that is needed is provided by servicemen in the area.

A total of 75,038 units of blood have been collected through late April, leaving some 175,000 pints still to be collected.

The National Guard Association is giving its full support to the project and it has been suggested by the Adjutant General of each state that National Guardsmen and their families be asked to give blood.

College students around the country have set an outstanding example by staging highly successful blood drives at college campuses, the Red Cross reports.

In the Delta County area there is an increasing demand for blood, created in part by the rise in elective surgery with children and students—plus a higher percentage of ac-

Cedarville Claims Seek $4.1 Million From Steel Corp.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Damage claims totaling $4.1 million were to be presented today to U.S. Steel Corp., owner of the sunken freighter Cedarville.

The Cedarville sank in the Straits of Mackinac May 7, 1965, following a collision in fog with the Norwegian ship Tordalsfjord. Ten Cedarville crewmen were lost.

Victor G. Hanson of Detroit, attorney for four widows and 10 survivors, said he would discuss settlement with U.S. Steel attorneys at a conference called by Federal Judge James C. Connel.

Hanson said he doubted the conference would settle the claims, but added he was "hopeful it would be a step on the way to a settlement."

Births

OLLILA — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ollila of 1642 S. 16th St., Escanaba are the parents of a son, Paul Jonathan, born Tuesday, May 17 at St. Francis Hospital. He arrived at 2:20 a. m. and weighed 8 pounds and 6 ounces at birth. The mother is the former Jane Jensen.

DAGENAIS — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dagenais welcomed their first child, a son, at 12:39 a. m. today, May 18. He was born at St. Francis Hospital and weighed 8 pounds and 3 ounces. The infant has been named Matthew Allen. Mrs. Dagenais was Jeanine Lippold.

Livelihood Day Finds Job View Best In Years

Delta County saluted the means of its livelihood at a luncheon and industrial products exhibits at Marco's today in observance of Livelihood Day of Michigan Week.

The tone of the program and the variety of the exhibits showed Delta County on the march economically, with a bright business future and more jobs in prospect.

Editor Jean Worth of the Escanaba Daily Press, the luncheon speaker, said that the local industrial outlook was the best in many years, if not the best ever.

He quoted report from James Damitz, manager of the Delta-Schoolcraft office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission and chairman of the Livelihood Day Committee, that there are only 500 job applications on file in the two-county Escanaba MESC office. And these are one-third female and 100 more of them were filed by youths.

The 500 job applications on May 15 compare with 550 on the same day a year ago and 809 on the same day in 1960. They compare with 1,084 at the Jan. 15 seasonal peak of unemployment this year and with 1,358 on Jan. 15, 1960.

The demand for men workers is very active in the Delta County area, with skills and trained workers preferred, but with industries increasingly willing to provide training. Needs of Eaton Yale & Towne, Inc., and Harnischfeger Corp. for the next year pose the prospect of 200 to 250 new jobs in the area, Worth said.

Population loss in the area has halted, he said and business buildup has started auspiciously.

The program was to honor the writer of the winning essay in a contest on "New Industry in Delta County" and the Dutch treat diners were to see Michigan Consolidate Gas Co.'s fine new movie of the Upper Peninsula's economic growth and potentials "New Horizons North."

The committee, besides Damitz, includes David Farrand of UPCA, Monroe Bouchet, Harry Middleton, Robert Haacke, Roy Hawkins, Morris Buckmiller and Grant Hess.

Public Health Program Set

Registration for the two-day Upper Peninsula Public Health Conference in Escanaba will begin at 9 a. m. Thursday at the Delta County building.

All programmed sessions will be held at the House of Ludington.

Over 100 public health officials and educators from throughout the Upper Peninsula are expected, according to Dr. Mary Cretens, director and Nancy Pearson, supervising nurse, of the host Delta-Menominee District Health Dept.

Featured speakers for the program are Dr. Albert Heustis, Lansing, commissioner of the Michigan Dept. of Public Health and Leona Dougherty, Escanaba, speech therapist at Bay de Noc Community College.

Dr. Heustis will address a joint session of nurses, sanitarians and clerks at 11 a. m. Friday on the topic, "Changing Concepts of Public Health." Miss Dougherty will speak on "Speech Therapy" as the annual banquet at 7 p. m. Thursday.

The program includes 16 distinguished public health officers who are involved in local, state and national programs.

Topics to be discussed include: Clarification of the Draft Rejection Program; Measles Vaccine Program; Applied Environmental Health for Hospitals; Services for Handicapped Children in the Upper Peninsula; Home Health Services; Medicare; Fire Hazards in nursing homes; Plumbing problems in Public Buildings; Well Driller Licensing; Refuse Disposal; Cardiac Programs; and Animal problems and Rabies.

Three To Seek Board Election At Bark River

BARK RIVER—Three persons have filed nominating petitions for the Bark River-Harris Board of Education. The annual school election is Monday, June 13.

Running unopposed for a four-year term is incumbent Leo Gatten, who is employed by Hotflame Gas Co.

Two candidates have registered for the remaining one year of a term which was originally held by Andy Barr, who resigned when he left the area. The position has been filled by Mel Taylor of Schaffer, who will not seek election.

Candidates for the one year term are Phil Norman and John Blomierz. Norman is postmaster at Bark River and Blomierz is a dairy farmer near Hermansville.

Polls at the elementary school will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. All registered voters are eligible to vote.

Office Holding Curbs Feared

LANSING (AP) — A Senate committee steered a government conflict of interest bill toward final House-Senate bargaining Tuesday, but voiced concern that it could limit office-holding to the wealthy or retired.

Numerous changes were made in the House-approved measure—not so much because the Senate Business Committee endorsed the changes as to insure the points would be open to negotiation.

The bill was sent to the full Senate, where it probably will be debated next week. The next step would be a House-Senate conference.

As it passed the House, the bill prohibits government officers or employees from having any financial or other personal interest in a contract with a government unit. They also could not accept other employment which would impair "independence of judgement in the exercise of official duties."

The Senate committee version eliminates — for the purpose of later negotiations — definitions of conflict of interest.

Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dandzel, D-Detroit said any such bill should be tied to a legislative salary increase. The Senate has approved an increase in salary and benefits from $12,500 to $17,500 annually. It awaits House action.

"Otherwise you hamstring legislators from making a living," he said. "Without a pay raise you'd have millionaires and retirees in the legislature."

Crash Victim

Jail One Youth, Fine Two Others On Beer Charge

George E. Leach, 17, of Old State Road, Escanaba, was sentenced to pay a fine and serve a term in the Delta County jail for being a minor in possession of beer when he was arraigned on the charge today in Municipal Court.

He was ordered to jail for seven days and must pay $25 fine and $5 costs. Failure to pay the fine will bring an additional two weeks in jail.

Leach was convicted of a similar charge four days ago.

Escanaba police arrested Leach, David L. Wallin, 20, 2422 Ludington St., and Janice Froberg, 19, of 1209 Washington Ave., at 11:40 p. m. Tuesday in the 1300 block, Ludington St. Wallin was ordered by the court to pay a fine of $25 and $5 costs; and Miss Froberg is to pay $10 fine and $5 costs.

Trout Fishermen Told

Escanaba River Level Is Normal

The Escanaba River in the Escanaba area is about at normal level and trout are beginning to congregate in holes, the Conservation Department tells fishermen. Roads to fishing grounds are in good condition.

In the Ensign and Rapid River area brook trout are hitting fairly well on the Sturgeon River and other streams. Best catches are being made on natural bait. Camp Seven Lake has produced some nice catches of trout.

Anyone planning on fishing walleyes in the Great Lakes, when the season opens May 21, is urged to try in deeper waters near St. Vital's Island due to the early spawning runs. The fish are now out in deeper water.

In the Gwinn and Rock areas of Marquette County Swanzy and Moccasin lakes are producing brook trout on worms and wet flies. Johnson Lake is producing rainbow trout on worms and trolling with artificial lures.

The Escanaba River is producing nice catches of brook and brown trout in T45N-R25W and T44N-R25W.

In the Republic area the Peshke River is producing nice catches of walleye on minnows and lures. Smaller streams in the area are producing brook trout by still fishing and bait casting. In the Chatham and AuTrain areas of Alger County rainbow fishing has been slow with light catches below the dam and at the mouth of the Rock River.

The Laughing Whitefish, and below the power house on the AuTrain River, using spawn bags, night crawlers, and spoons. Brook trout fishing was fair in the Dexter and Scott creeks and the East and West branches of the Whitefish River. Johnson Creek was good in the M 67 Basin area and Rock River also produced some good catches of brook trout. Some walleyes being taken from the south end of AuTrain Lake on night crawlers and live minnows. Some perch and panfish on the inland lakes in the area. Heavy sucker runs are reported on most streams in Alger County.

The AuTrain Basin gave up a 19½ inch brook trout in the week. AuTrain River, below the power house, produced some nice brook trout in the 16-18 inch class. Some eight to 10 pound rainbows were taken below the dam and at the mouth of the Rock River. One 22 pounds, 44 inch northern pike was taken over the weekend in the vicinity of the Laughing Whitefish River.

Fishermen are reminded by Robert W. Timmer, district law supervisor, that the bass season does not open until June 1. "If fishing and catching bass, be sure to turn them loose or you may be in trouble," said Timmer. Walleye season does not open until May 21 in the Great Lakes.

FBI agents from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other offices joined state and local police and game wardens in surrounding the area.

Laborers Sign Three-Year Pact
TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Laborers Tuesday ended a strike against commercial construction projects in a 13-county area of northern Lower Michigan.

Members of Local 1247 of the Laborers International Union voted 106 1/2 for a three-year contract. The pact provides for 92 cents an hour in pay raises over the three-year span of the agreement.

Dick Barrett, union business agent, said the laborers had been paid $2.70 hourly in base wages under the old pact which expired April 30.

To Have Surgery:

Perras Is Out Of House Race

Clifford E. Perras, Nadeau, former Republican representative in the 109th Legislative district and manager of the U.P. State Fair, today announced that he will not be a candidate for the office this year.

Making the announcement from St. Francis Hospital, where he has been a patient since last Friday, Perras said that he will have surgery on Thursday morning to correct a lower bowel condition.

Perras will continue as secretary-manager of the State Fair, a position he has held for the past year.

The 109th Legislative District is composed of Menominee, Dickinson and Iron Counties, and four townships of Marquette and two townships of Gogebic counties. In the last election there were 31,000 votes cast in the 109th.

Nadeau Native
Before his election to the Legislature Perras was elected to and served as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention. He was elected in 1962 and served for one term in the Legislature and was defeated by James Constantini, Democrat, of Iron Mountain in the 1964 election.

Born in Nadeau in 1914, Perras is operator of a restaurant and motel there, and served on the Nadeau Board of Education for 10 years. He is married and has two sons, Clifford Jr. and John Joseph.

Perras was appointed by the U. P. State Fair Board as manager to succeed Ray LaPorte of Escanaba. LaPorte is now in charge of the anti-poverty program in this district.

Broach Sliding Tuition Scale

EAST LANSING (AP) — Two Michigan State University trustees suggested Tuesday that if the Legislature doesn't give MSU enough money the school should adopt a sliding tuition scale based on family income.

Under the plan proposed by Don Stevens and Clair White, tuition for Michigan residents would range from free to $1,020 a year. They now are $324 for Michigan residents and $870 for out-of-state students.

MSU officials earlier told a House committee the school needs at least $1.7 million more than the Senate provided or it would have to consider a tuition increase.

Stevens and White suggested that if MSU considers the Legislature's appropriation inadequate it limit admission by changing the fee structure. Under their plan, a student's tuition is free if his family's income is under $5,000.

It would be $324 if the income was $5,000-$10,000, $354 if the income was $10,000-$15,000, $870 if the income was $15,000-$20,000 and $1,020 if the income was above $20,000.

Out-of-state students would pay $1,020.

In using the Stevens-White plan, $1,000 would be deducted from family income for every dependent in the family besides the student. Thus, tuition would be free for a student from a $6,000 family if there was another dependent at home.

Stevens and White also proposed that all future increases in fees be limited to students from families with incomes of $15,000 or more and to out-of-state students.

Park Bonding Is Approved

LANSING (AP) — The State Municipal Finance Commission Tuesday approved a $2.15 million borrowing by Ontonagon Township School District, Ontonagon County, for school construction.

The State Conservation Commission was given permission to issue $1.5 million in revenue bonds for park lands acquisition.

Other borrowings approved included: Mount Clemens, Macomb County, $385,000 in general obligation bonds for a rehabilitation project.

Portage Township, Houghton County, $25,000 in revenue bonds for water supply improvements.

Christian Science Lecture Planned Here Saturday

An explanation of how to develop "spiritual perception" will be presented by Christian Scientist Paul A. Erickson, C.S.B., at a public lecture in Escanaba on Saturday.

The lecture, "The Value of a Spiritual Outlook," is being sponsored by the Christian Science Society at 8 p. m. in the church edifice, 325 S. 13th St. There is no charge or collection, and everyone is welcome.

Mr. Erickson, who once served as chaplain's assistant at the U. S. Naval Academy, gave up a position as manufacturer's agent in Chicago several years ago to become a recognized practitioner in the Christian Science healing ministry. He is also an authorized teacher of the religion, and is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

Panthers Have Regional Troubles

Pickford's Track Dynasty To End After 14 Years?

By RAY CRANDALL
(Press Sports Editor)

Most of the athletes on the current Pickford High School track team weren't even in kindergarten when the Panthers began their unprecedented string of 14 straight Upper Peninsula Class D championships in 1952.

Coach Web Morrison's Panther track and field teams have written the most spectacular chapter in Upper Peninsula prep sports history by completely dominating the sport since they took part in their first meet in the spring of 1952. They have bowed in a few rare regular season meets since that time, but nobody has been able to touch them when it counts—in the U. P. finals.

A glance at the Upper Peninsula record book emphasizes Pickford's superiority in track. Panther athletes own five of the existing U. P. Class D records.

There are signs that the Pickford dynasty may be crumbling this spring. For one thing the Panthers failed to win the Central Michigan University Class D relays this year, for the first time in five seasons, and Pickford was defeated by the Class A-B champion Soo Blue Devils in regular season competition.

Pickford barely retained its regional championship last Saturday, edging runnerup DeTour by a half point, 67 1/2 to 67. The Panthers qualified 16 athletes to compete in Saturday's U. P. finals at Marquette.

A rundown of the regional performances in four meets last Saturday reveals that Pickford athletes turned in the top winning performances in four events. Jim Belinski led the 880 yard winners in the regionals with a 2:06.5 clocking. Neil Harrison was the top vaulter with a height of 11 feet 10 inches. Melvin Leach paced the low hurdlers in 22.3 seconds. The Panthers led in the 880 relay race with a 1:40.1 time.

While Pickford barely edged DeTour in its regional qualifying meet, the winners of the other regionals were Rapid River, Channing and Ironwood St. Ambrose.

Individually, Rapid River produced a double regional leader in Pat Larrabee who topped all other qualifiers in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Darrell Olmstead of DeTour was also a twin winner in the long jump and 440 yard dash.

If regional performances are an indication, Class D athletes have only an outside chance to crack existing records. Paul Feak, of Channing, who already owns the U. P. Class D high and low hurdles records, matched his time in the lows with a 15.4 effort in the preliminaries. Neil Harrison of Pickford went 11 feet 10 inches in the pole vault, two inches better than the 11-8 record by an older brother, Tom, in 1963.

Following are the winning performances in each event in the four regional meets which were run off last Saturday, followed by the existing record in each event:

100 dash—Larrabee, Rapid River 10.7; Couillard, Pickford, 10.8; Nye, Dollar Bay, 11.0; Dillon, Republic, 11.2. Record 10.2.

220 dash—Larrabee, Rapid River 24.55; Bennin, Pickford, 24.8; Dillon, Republic, 25.3; Richards, St. Ambrose, 25.5. Record 23.0.

440 dash—Olmstead, DeTour, 55.1; Smith, Channing, 58.0; Socheck, Bark River, 58.1; Gerla, St. Ambrose, 57.7. Record 52.7.

880 — Belinski, Pickford, 2:06.5; Gray, National Mine, 2:08.7; Leach, Perkins, 2:11; Kapugia, St. Ambrose, 2:16.2. Record 2:02.95.

1 mile—Miller, Cooks, 4:52.75; Innerebner, Champion, 4:55.7; Shagen, Brimley, 5:03.2. Gamble, White Pine, 5:04.7. Record 4:41.3.

High hurdles—Feak, Channing, 15.7; Klamers, DeTour, 16.0; Saxon, Garden, 16.85; Winn, St. Ambrose, 17.5. Record 15.4. (Feak ran 15.4 in morning preliminaries at Marquette regional).

Low hurdles—Leach, Pickford, 22.3; Saxon, Garden, 22.6; Feak, Channing, 23.1; Nye, Dollar Bay, 23.15. Record 21.1.

Shot put—LaSalle, Garden, 44-9 1/2; McGuire, DeTour, 43-8 1/2; Rankinen, Republic, 44-3 1/2; Skantz, Ewen, 35-3 1/2. Record 46-6.

Pole vault—Harrison, Pickford, 11-0; Anderson, Rapid River, 11-6; Swanson, Channing, 10-9; Gertz, St. Ambrose, 10-8 1/2. Record 11-8.

High jump—Klamers, DeTour, 5-10; Socheck, Bark River, 5-6; Swanson, Channing, 5-6; Nye, Dollar Bay, 5-4. Record 5-11 1/2.

Long jump—Olmstead, DeTour, 19-8; Feak, Channing, 18-3 1/2; Forslund, Rapid River, 18-6 1/2; Johnson, Bergland, 18-4. Record 20-10 1/4.

880 relay—Pickford, 1:40.1; Channing, 1:40.3; Garden, 1:43; St. Ambrose, 1:43.5. Record 1:35.5.

1 mile relay—DeTour, 3:49.6; Cooks, 3:50.9; St. Ambrose, 3:55; Baraga, 3:56.3. Record 3:41.8.

George Shomin came in with a 40, followed by Elmer Swanson and Harold Cloutier with 41. Eis was closest to the pin on No. 7. Tied for first in the best ball event were Eis-Bill Perron and Chuck Crago-Ron Vogt with 31x. Bob Trout, Ralph Zenker and Shomin-Tom Hugison had 32x.

Hustlers 19, 19th Holers 14, No. 8 13 1/2, No. 12, Ice Boxes 12, Gravel Gerties 10 1/2, Pea Soups 10, Mead Office 9 1/2, Hogan's Hustlers 8 1/2, Masters 8, No. 5 7 1/2, Hush Puppies 6 1/2, Larch's 6 1/2, Paper Makers 6, No. 10 6, No. 7 4, No. 6 3 1/2, Pedagogues 3 1/2.

Waubung Loop Down To Three; Lack Of Managers Is Factor

The Waubung Baseball League, oldest active baseball organization for young ball players in the Upper Peninsula, experienced reorganizational pains at a meeting held Tuesday night at the Escanaba Daily Press.

Three teams from last year's membership were represented at the session. Attending were Pat LaFave of Manistique, Bob Smith of Powers and Al Ness of Escanaba with Ray Crandall, league commissioner. Gladstone was not represented.

A possible new member of the league, which has operated continuously since 1947, is Iron Mountain. A meeting of the Iron Mountain Legion Post will be held this evening and a decision on whether to join the league is expected.

Major problem facing the league again this season is lack of adult interest in the baseball program. Managers are lacking in most communities in which there is evident interest in the sport by the young ball players.

Gladstone is an example at hand. Don Hoves has been instrumental in promotion of Gladstone American Legion teams in recent years but no longer lives in the community. Although the players of the Gladstone area have indicated an interest in continuing in the Waubung League, they have been unable to find adult sponsors.

If Gladstone is unable to return to the league this year the Waubung will be forced to go with three or four teams, depending on the Iron Mountain decision. League officials stated last night that they would welcome any other community as a Waubung member. If there are any persons interested, they may contact the league commissioner at the Daily Press newsroom.

The final league organization meeting will be held Tuesday, May 24, at 7:30 p. m. at the Daily Press.

Summary:

Don Hill's Hermansville Redskins fashioned their sixth straight victory of the season, 6-0 over the Powers Tigers and captured their third straight Big Seven Conference baseball championship and extend their three-year victory string to 19 games.

The Redskins blanked Powers-Spaulding, 6-0, in the season finale Tuesday.

Don Whitens, senior right-hander, registered his sixth mound victory of the season with a nifty two-bitter. He fanned 12 batters and didn't issue a walk. Whitens also contributed a double and single at the plate.

Jim Kiekamp and Bill Hawrylow shared the Powers mound and allowed six hits. Doug LaCourriere and Harry Gordon lashed doubles and John Whitens came through with two singles.

Gogolak Signed As Free Agent; May Start War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The signing of place-kicker Pete Gogolak by the New York Giants after he played out his option with the Buffalo Bills may signal an all-out bitter war between the National Football League and the American Football League.

Although several players have played out their options in both pro leagues, none has signed with the other league since 1961 when Wilford Deweyall, Chicago Bears' end, became a free agent and hopped to the Houston Oilers.

Al Davis, AFL commissioner, had a "no comment" reaction to the news, announced Tuesday by Wellington Mara, president of the Giants, at the NFL meeting.

However, an AFL spokesman observed, "The league office stand is that this was not a surprise. We had reason to anticipate the provocative action of the New York Giants against the Buffalo Bills. We are interested in seeing if the commissioner's office of the other league will approve the contract."

"If the contract is in order, from the standpoint of eligibility in the National Football League," said NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, "it will not be disapproved." The contract was mailed to Rozelle's New York office.

Under pro football rules, unlike baseball, a player can refuse to sign a contract with a team, take a cut in pay and play out his option for one year. The following May 1 he becomes a free agent. Gogolak never did sign with Buffalo in 1965.

Obviously, if a number of players refuse to sign their 1966 contracts and play out their options, this opens the door to wild bidding next May 1.

The AFL has two other star players, defensive linemen Earl Faison and Ernie Ladd of San Diego, who became free agents May 1. They reportedly are talking of playing football in Canada.

Gogolak had not been drafted originally in the NFL when he graduated from Cornell. But Ladd was drafted by the Chicago Bears and Faison by the Detroit Lions. They still retain NFL negotiating rights.

Women's Golf Matches Today

All women members of the Escanaba Country Club who are going to participate in League Play on Wednesdays, are reminded that registrations must be made at the Pro Shop by today. Registrations may be made by telephone. Members of the beginners league must also be registered.

All women golfers playing golf in the open event are asked to make up their own foursomes, or twosomes. Score cards must be turned in to Jim Crichton after matches are completed. Prizes will be awarded at the dinner following league play.

Tigers Post First Victory For Swift

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Swift's first game in his second term as interim manager of the Detroit Tigers was a success, thanks to some of the experience he gained as a major league catcher.

The Tigers, behind Denny McLain's two-hit pitching, crushed the New York Yankees 7-2 Tuesday night in Swift's first game at the helm in place of ailing Charlie Dressen.

Turpin's Death Likely Suicide

LONDON (AP) — The sad riches-for-rags story of Randolph Turpin, former world middleweight champion, ended with a gunshot blast in a dingy backstreet cafe Tuesday.

Although police maintained a traditional silence on who did the shooting, friends said the 39-year-old Turpin had been depressed lately.

In the same incident Turpin's 17-month-old daughter, Carmen, was seriously injured with two gunshot wounds and rushed to a hospital.

Turpin was found dead with a gun near the body in his wife's transport cafe in Leamington Spa, about 150 miles north of London.

Judge Delays Baseball Order

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball's Braves have won court permission to keep on playing in Atlanta while the Wisconsin Supreme Court studies an appeal of the National League's antitrust conviction.

A court order for the Braves to return to Milwaukee today was suspended Tuesday by Circuit Judge Elmer W. Rorer after the state's Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal June 9.

Baseball attorneys indicated their appeal would attack again the issue of whether a state court had jurisdiction over a sport extending from coast to coast.

"Baseball is an interstate business and at this time all of baseball is outside the jurisdiction of this court," Braves' attorney Earl Jinkins told Rorer in an unsuccessful move for a new trial.

Long Knockers Highland Pacer

The Long Knockers blazed out with 8 points to open the Twilight league season at the Highland Golf Club. The Baumeirs and Super Valu follow with 6 1/2, while the Earl-E Birds, Par Busters, Hackers, Big Stickers are tied with 6 points each.

Most of the low scoring was confined to one foursome where Jack Smith and Mel Mansk shot 37-38, Jim Douglas 38-38, and Dave Friets 38-39. Other low scores were Vial Smith 38, Barney Barnhart 39-40, Bob Boucher, Jim Schultz and Ed McCarthy 40.

Oliva Crashes Pair As Twins Down Sox

By The Associated Press

Tony Oliva won't need a travel agent if he ever decides to roam. Eddie Stanky has volunteered for the job and there's a line forming behind the Chicago White Sox pilot.

Oliva crashed a pair of long home runs Tuesday night, powering Minnesota to an 8-3 victory over the White Sox and prompting Stanky to divulge his traveling plans for the Twins slugger.

"He should be playing in Japan," Stanky said. "He could make a million over there, and I'd pay his way over there. In fact, I know about eight other managers in this league that will pay, too."

Chances are Oliva will settle for domestic travel this season—particularly around the bases. The two-time American League batting champion has hit nine homers while lifting his average to .407, tops in the league.

His 3-for-4 Tuesday night gave him nine hits in 11 at-bats in three appearances against the White Sox this year, and put him in select company as far as Stanky is concerned.

Oliva's three-run homer in the first inning and solo shot in the third helped left-hander Jim Kaat go the distance for his fourth victory as the Twins climbed into the first division for the first time since the opening week of the season.

Elsewhere, Detroit mauled the New York Yankees 7-2 behind Dennis McLain's two-hitter and three homers, Cleveland edged Washington 3-2 on Max Alvis' two-run homer and Baltimore topped Boston 8-6 with a four-run rally in the sixth inning. California was rained out at Kansas City.

Alvis' homer off Diego Segui capped a three-run uprising by the Indians in the sixth and preserved Sam McDowell's unbeaten record. McDowell was lifted in the fifth with the Senators ahead 2-0. Don McMahon, winner Tom Kelley and Bob Alci pitched hitless relief for the Indians over the last 4 1-3 innings.

A two-run triple by Luis Aparicio keyed Baltimore's sixth-inning outburst, which shot the Orioles ahead 8-5 and nullified Rico Petrocelli's grand slam homer for the Red Sox.

Petrocelli, whose two errors in the first inning had helped the Orioles to three runs, gave Boston a 5-4 lead in the fourth with his second bases-loaded homer of the season.

Dodgers Getting Better Against Juan; Tip Giants

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Dodgers are halfway to beating Juan Marichal.

The Dodgers, who haven't beaten the San Francisco ace in more than a year, edged the Giants 2-1 in 13 innings Tuesday night after holding Marichal to a tie in 10 innings.

The tie was an improvement over the outcome two weeks ago when he stopped them 8-1 on four hits. The next logical step, then, would be for the Dodgers to progress the rest of the way and defeat Marichal.

The last time they accomplished that feat was April 29, 1965, when they squeaked by him 2-1. He holds a four-game winning streak against them and is 18-8 lifetime.

Los Angeles nearly missed gaining the tie, and Marichal nearly had his eighth victory of the season without a loss.

But the Dodgers, who managed just five hits in the first eight innings, finally scored in the ninth, tying the game 1-1. Maury Wills beat out a bunt, raced to third as Jim Gilliam singled and came home on Willie Davis' fly to Willie Mays in center field.

Marichal stopped the Dodgers in the 10th, then left for a pinch hitter in the 11th, his earned run average only slightly higher at .078.

It took more than eight innings for the Dodgers to toss a firecracker themselves.

In other National League games, Cincinnati blanked New York 4-0, Pittsburgh defeated Atlanta 5-2 and Philadelphia trashed St. Louis 5-3. Rain washed out Houston at Chicago.

The Dodgers finally won in the 13th inning when Wes Parkers led off with a single against Frank Linzy, dashed to third on Wills' single and continued home as right fielder Olie Lison.

Brown fired the ball into the Los Angeles dugout.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney won his third game without a defeat, stopping New York on two hits and retiring the last 22 men he faced. Don Pavletich drove in two Red runs with a double and a homer while Vada Pinson knocked in a pair with a single and a grounder.

Donn Clendenon's two-run single climaxed a three-run rally in the sixth inning that carried Pittsburgh past Atlanta. Manny Mota completed the Pirate comeback, doubling across a run in the seventh and stealing home. Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

The Phillies got two bases-loaded walks in the seventh inning for their victory over St. Louis. Nelson Briles walked Dick Groat, forcing in the tie-breaking run, then gave way to Joe Hoerner, who walked John Callison.

Tax Order:

Schools Facing $13,000 Loss In Annual Income

Superintendent Wallace Cameron of the Gladstone Public Schools said today the Board of Education may have to ask an extra one-mill for school operation at the June 13 election because of the action of the Delta County Tax Allocation Board Monday.

The Allocation Board in its preliminary order gave Escanaba Township one mill, stripping one mill from the 1965 allocation to the Gladstone schools.

Net loss to the school district will be over $13,000, Cameron said, about $8,000 in local tax revenue and between $5,000 and $6,000 in special state aid to distressed school districts.

Meeting Indicated

Cameron said special state aid is given to school districts which are making an above average effort to support local schools. He pointed out that the loss of one mill through the Tax Allocation Board action reduces the Gladstone effort too

Central PTA Views Movie

They were charged with littering.

Abbott Honors Donald J. Cota

Donald J. Cota, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Cota of Ford River Road, has been signally honored by Abbott Laboratories, with whom he has been associated for the past 12 years.

Cota was named an Abbott Scientific Award winner 1966 and received special recognition of merit "in appreciation of scientific achievements for the advancement of medical science, consistent high quality and integrity of work, and effective collaboration with fellow scientists and members of the entire Abbott organization."

A graduate of Escanaba High School, he received his Bachelor's degree from Michigan Technological University at Houghton in 1951.

Special recognition was accorded Cota by Abbott Laboratories for his work in chemical development.

"In the laboratory you have created unique yet practical syntheses of many of our existing products. Your industriousness has led to improved methods for producing Eutonyl, Pentothal Sodium and hydrogen bromide," the firm reports.

"With diligence and ingenuity, you have helped carry these products successfully through pilot plant experimentation and into production," the report continues. "With equal skill, you have made significant contributions to processes for new experimental drugs."

"The success of many developmental projects has been the result of your ability to cooperate with and coordinate the talents of Chemical Research, Analytical Research, Chemical Development and Chemical Manufacturing."

"The quality and quantity of your work has gained for you the respect and admiration of your associates in each of these areas."

Mr. and Mrs. Cota and their two children reside in Waukegan, Ill. Mrs. Cota is the former Mary Miron, daughter of Mrs. William Miron of Escanaba and the late State Senator Miron.

Family Living Aids Are Goal

The Upper Peninsula will stage a series of Strengthening the Family Conferences in the week of Oct. 17, under the sponsorship of the State Human Resources Council and with the assistance of the Human Resources Committee of UPAC.

Harold C. McKinney, Jr., executive secretary of the State Human Resources Council discussed the conferences with members of a planning group at Northern Michigan University's student center, Marquette, on Monday. Education, church and welfare agencies sent representatives.

The conferences will be at Escanaba, Oct. 17, Iron Mountain, Oct. 18; Ironwood, Oct. 19, Houghton, Oct. 20, Marquette, Oct. 21 and Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 22.

The regional meetings will involve youths and parents, the churches, public and parochial schools, courts and social agencies. Each will be asked how it can contribute to strengthening family life.

A heavy new accent will be placed on the role of the church in bolstering the family, because the churches are regarded as the greatest single influence in this field. In the spring of 1967 a spring conference is planned to evaluate the work of the regional conferences and the followup programs of action. The conferences will seek means to combat weakening family life that is evidence in juvenile delinquency, crime, divorces and lax morals.
